

SPEAKER

PANEL II: CSDR Review: regulators' perspective

Andrea Gentilini

Head of Markets Infrastructures Division, CSSF

Andrea Gentilini joined the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier in 2014 within the Market Infrastructure Division, becoming Head of Division in 2017.

Andrea is responsible for the supervision in the context of CSDR, EMIR and SFTR. He has contributed to the European regulations related to Market infrastructure and currently works, among others, on the implementation of CSDR.

Andrea graduated from Bocconi University with an MSc in Economics.

Andrea started his career in 1999 at Bocconi University, in 2001 he worked for Intesa San Paolo Asset Management in Luxembourg as portfolio manager for multi manager funds. In 2007 he moved to China working for Penghua Asset Management Ltd, where he was appointed Head of International Business Department. Moved back to Luxembourg, after two years in Eurizon Capital S.A., in 2011 he joined PwC Luxembourg where he contributed to develop the advisory services on EMIR assisting asset managers, banks and corporate entities.